

Dear Harold,

Oct. 8, 1997

You may have already seen the enclosed, but it sure does confirm your analysis of the Cuba Missile Crisis. Curtis LeMay's character comes through loud and clear.

I have finally gotten around to reading your manuscript on Newman. Among the nuts he depends on I could not believe that he cites Marita Lorenz as a credible source. I have her book in my office. As you may know her "documents" appendix includes such items as the front page of a tabloid called "Confidential". It appears Newman is laying the groundwork to cast further dirt on Cuba and Castro. Maybe he is angling for a research grant from Jesse Helms' Senate Foreign Relations committee.

Hope you and Lilian are well. Dennis and I are strongly considering a trip to Frederick in late November or possibly early December. I hope we will be able to make the trip.

Best,
Geary
